The Undertaker of Holly, Orleans county, N. Y., stated to me after he had opened the casket containing the remains of my mother, after being transported from here, that the Undertaker at Paw Paw, Mich., had prepared them in the most skillful and approved manner; that they were in a perfect state of preservation, and everything in as good condition as though the work had just been performed. That of all the numerous bodies received in charge by him, he never saw one where every requisite had been more faithfully attended to. Mrs. F. C. THOMAS.

Harvest has begun, business in town is dull, and the clerks amuse themselves by playing ball in the streets.

John Hiling took a car-load of his friends from Lawton and this place to Four Mile Lake last Sunday afternoon.

He says it was a ground hog case. He had to get his letter to the office before the mail closed; therefore he ran.

Rev. W. C. Burns, of the Y. M. C. A. State Executive Committee, filled the Free Baptist pulpit on Sabbath morning last.

Masons from Paw Paw visited the chapter at Lawrence. They say they had a good time.

Capt. Smith has gone on his annual trip to the sea shore to fill up on clam-chowder, etc. He will probably return fat and good-natured. He orders the NORTHERNER to follow him.

Our lamp-lighter says the world is full of brutes, but one of the dirtiest tricks he knows anything about, is plastering the lamp-posts with old tobacco quids.

E. J. Crane has shingled his side-walk with coal-tar and it looks like a good job. J. W.
Ball is intending to put a new roof on his walk which will much improve it.

South Haven is the way our friend, the Bloomingdale Leader, has it. We object.
We know it is a nice place, but we don't want to go there after we shuffle off.

Wonder if any of the twenty young chaps who sat on the steps of the Disciple church last Sunday evening, got the mitten at the close of the service. How they must have enjoyed the sermon!

Eaton Rapids, Mich.

At the front door of the christian church

Society will hold an ice cream and fresh Talk about shipping frogs! An enterprising fellow in town has got it down finer than that, and is doing a thriving business in angle-worms which he ships to Petoskey, for fish-bait, at a shilling per dozen.

Elmer Serrine and Elmer Darling came home on Wednesday of last week from Grand Rapids, where they have been for the past three months. They are engaged in the life and accident insurance business.

Bangs Warner lost his pocket-book between this place and Bangor last Sunday. It contained some bills, a promissory note and cards of the firm, Beebe & Warner, and possibly a letter or two from his innamorata.

Miss Hattie Pope, who is teaching in the Chapin district one mile east of town, has had a three week's vacation on account of scarlet fever in the family of H. H. Jennings. There has been but one case, and school is to begin again next Monday.

The number of present inmates in our County House, as stated in the article we published from the Paw Paw correspondence of Bangor Reflector last week, should be 37 instead of 30 as published. The error occurred in the Reflector.

The narrow gauge has a novel scheme of running cars without an engine. They load flats with ties about 40 rods east of Allen's and start them for Lawrence. The grade is descending enough so that they run to the depot without any assistance.

Frank Stearns and Ben. Heckert have taken their departure.

For the place of handsome women, Far beyond the Gitchee Gunee,
To the home of Hiawatha,
To the land of the Dakotas.

L. E. Barnum and his wife, of Denver, Col., are visiting old friends and relatives in this village. The "Great West" seems to agree with Ike, as he is looking hale and hearty.
Everybody who ever knew either him or his wife, are glad to meet them once more.

The new officers of Paw Paw Lodge I. O.
O. F., were not installed last Friday evening.
They will probably be installed to-night.
The order has taken a new departure, all business being done in the 3d degree instead of in the initiatory degree as formerly.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Malloy, of Kendalls, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilcox of Paw Paw, on Sunday and Monday last.
They were on their return from Iowa where they have been prospecting. Tom says Van Buren County is good enough for him.

A couple of our tony young men (one a pill mixer, the other a bran new granger) were seen sporting tall white hats on the streets of Chicago last week, but haven't heard of anybody's seeing them worn here. Trot 'em out, boys, and let's see how they look.

We notice by the Minnesota Journal Press that N. K. Hunt, formerly of Mattawan, is prospering. He has recently erected a barn with basement stable 30x44. He resides in Haven, Sherburne County, Minn. He reports crops in fine condition and the town improving rapidly.

Miss Emma Harwick, who has rendered such efficient aid in the work of "teaching the young ideas how to shoot," has finally been wheedled into accepting a school of one scholar. She was married July 5th, to Mr. Antoine Johnson of Vulcan, Mich. May they "live long and prosper."

Last Thursday G. W. Naftager, of Waverly had a colt bitten by a rattlesnake. D. O.
Lockman cured it.

Geo. W. Longwell Esq. has obtained control of the Dyckman House, and will at once proceed to put the same in good repair, and erect a new and commodious barn. Under his energetic management we shall, doubtless, soon see that institution in proper condition for occupation.

That game of base-ball that was to be played on Saturday last between the Bangors and the Lawtons was not played, the Bangors failing to come to time. A game was gotten up between the Lawtons and the Paw Paws, and now the scalps of the Paw Paw club are drying in the smoke of Lawton wigwams.

One night last week Mr. R. O. Beebe, our stirring life insurance man, returned home late at night, and in the darkness fell through his barn floor, injuring him quite severely.
He had just taken out an accident policy of $35 per week, and we think he fell into the trap on purpose to advertise his company.

The narrow gauge survey between Hartford and Lawrence is completed, and the right of way nearly secured. The road will connect with the C. & W. M. about eighty rods north of the depot, and will run in on the track of that road, using the present passenger house and freight depot, a distance of more than two miles.

C. R. Dewey, ex-Supt. of Schools, of Keeler, intends to enter the State University at the beginning of next term. Charles' many friends will miss him, but he will have their kind wishes for his success. Recently married to a charming young lady from Dowagiac, he is, we hope, about to enter upon a happy and useful life.

The union meeting at the Disciple church last Sunday night, was a success. It was a union of choirs as well as of preachers and congregations. If the Elder had suggested it beforehand he could have had Coronation, Balerna, Bethany, or Old Hundred, or all of them. The meeting next Sunday evening will be held at the Presbyterian church.

The boys had the steamer out for practice, last Tuesday evening. There was a dispute between some of the officers as to whether they could empty the east cistern or not in twenty minutes time, which is fed by a six inch tile. The cigars were pending on the result. A full head of steam and two streams of water emptied it in 19½ minutes. The boys all got a smoke.

On Wednesday of last week, Geo. Skinner a 15-year-old boy was convicted of larceny before Esq. Haynes, of Decatur, and sentenced to the reform school at Lansing. He had been there before, and on account of good behavior was discharged. Van took him in tow, and at the same time took down the young highwayman, Winters, and young Stoughton who goes to the Ionia reformatory for a year and a half.

Ex-Tycoon Williams and ex-Justice Noyes had a little set-to the other day. We have had a statement of the affair from both parties, and the truth seems to be about as follows: The ex-Justice was sitting quietly and peacefully in his store perusing the Chicago Times, when the ex-Tycoon marched boldly up with a Dakota war-whoop and put one of his No. 10 bolts through the paper. The ex-J. at once proceeded to put the head of the ex-T. in chancery, and amid baskets, barrels, boxes and beer-kegs, mingled heads, arms, legs and big boots in dire confusion until the umpire called time. At this point a surgeon was called in. The first fall was awarded to Williams and the first blood to Noyes. Williams' head is enveloped in court plaster, and Noyes has bumps never located by a phrenologist.

A novel and yet a very sensible picnic was held at Lake Park on Tuesday. It was gotten up by the clergy and denominated a "Ministerial picnic," and was participated in by the pastors and their families and a few of the members from all the churches of our village, save the Episcopal and Catholic.
Every one who was present voted it to be one of the most enjoyable social gatherings they ever attended, and it is certainly indicative of a fraternal relation among those who are battling against the vices of the world, that can but result in greater and still greater good in the years to come. Age and a portly physique conspired to give Rev. Mr. Ebert, of the Disciple church, a seat at the head of the table and make him master of ceremonies.

Brother Goodman, of the Baptist church, having no wife or children to look after, made himself exceedingly useful in looking after the wants of those more blessed than he. In response to toasts, following a bounteous repast, short speeches were made by Rev.
Mr. Burns, Judge Richards, I. E. Barnum, A. H. Herron and General Granger. Miss Dudley favored the company with a beautiful song. It is hoped that this is but the beginning of an annual ministerial picnic, at which not only a few but all of the members of the churches of our village may be invited.
